PEARY, BAFFLED, BUT NOT DISCOURAGED, COMES HOME FROM THE ARCTIC REGIONS.

Farthest Northern Point Attained by His Expedition Is 343 Miles Short of the Goal of All Arctic Endeavor—Explorer Believes That Success Is Possible, but Hardly Expects to Be Able to Make Another Attempt—Is in Good Health and Brings Back Many Objects of Scientific Interest, Including the Library, Instruments and Charts of the Greeley Expedition.

PROVES THERE IS NO OPEN SEA AND NO ETERNALLY FROZEN OCEAN AROUND THE POLE.

Sydney, Cape Breton, Sept. 18.—Defeated in his attempt to reach the North Pole, but not discouraged, Lieutenant Robert E. Peary returned from the Arctic country. He has again achieved, at latitude 84.17, the "farthest north" of any American explorer, but failed by 343 geographical miles to reach the ultimate goal of Arctic endeavor. But Lieutenant Peary probably never will lead another expedition north. He came back with a deep-rooted conviction that it is possible to reach the pole, but with slim hopes that he will ever again have the chance to try it, much as he would like to.

This is the way he summarizes the results of his experiences. There was another man on board the stanch little Windward, as she steamed in to port early this morning, who came with very different feelings from those of Lieutenant Peary. This was Doctor Dredrick, who abandoned the Peary expedition a year ago and had lived since with the Eskimos until taken aboard the Windward again by Peary at Fort York two weeks ago. Peary is calmly satisfied. Dredrick is sulky and defiant, refusing to give any account of explanation of his differences with the explorer, but declaring that his time will come for a settlement of all scores. On board the Windward was another personage almost equally heroic with the ex-

The dotted line in the map indicates the route taken by Lieutenant Peary in his dash for the pole after landing at Erik Bay. The star indicates the point on the Arctic Sea where he was obliged to turn back. It is farther north than any point attained by any other American explorer. This was Lieutenant Peary's wife, who, during most of the time since she joined her husband early this summer, has been an invalid. To inquiry about her, Mr. Peary said:

"You know, probably, that for the last four years Mrs. Peary has been doing a vast amount of hard work at this end of the line. She has done more in her way than I in mine. For six months before sailing to meet me her labors had been particularly arduous. She joined me, then the reaction came. She almost collapsed, and for days I was seriously alarmed. Fever was high, but a turn for the better came, and now she is almost well."

HENDERSON HAS PUT PARTY ON DEFENSIVE.

Democrats Think His Action Has Assured Republicans Loss of the House.

PRESIDENT MUST TALK TARIFF.

Work of the Senatorial Conference at Oyster Bay Rendered Null and Void by the Speaker's Announcement.

Washington, Sept. 18.—The issues of the fall campaign have now been defined absolutely. They are the tariff and trusts. This declaration was made to-day by a Democrat in this city in close touch with the Campaign Committee, although the speaker declined to talk officially. "Speaker Henderson has not only made it possible for the Democrats to bow gracefully out of any Philippine discussion or imperialistic talk before the people of the country," he said, "but he has made it imperative on the orators of his own party in all sections of the country to talk on the tariff and incidentally on the trusts. He has rendered null and void the work of the senatorial conference at Oyster Bay, in which the President sought advice of the leaders of the Senate as to what he should say on his Western trip."

"The President will now be compelled to talk tariff. In fact, he will be compelled to make promises that the tariff shall be revised. "All this has the Speaker done by his refusal to run, because, as he alleges, he is not in harmony with the overwhelming sentiment of his party in his State for tariff revision."

"That this is the best thing which has happened to the Democrats since the campaign began goes without saying. It pitches the issues exactly where they should be pitched. It puts the administration on the defensive on the most important political issue in the public mind—the tariff—and, besides all this, it will enthrone Democratic orators and campaigners as nothing else could have done at this stage of the campaign."

FOLK HAS FILED INFORMATION TO REPLACE BENCH WARRANTS.

Edmund Bersch, Charles J. Denny, Jerre J. Hannigan and T. E. Albright Are Charged With Perjury in Connection With the Suburban Railway Deal—Papers in Ten Other Cases Are Expected to Be Ready To-Day to Clinch Indictment of Boodler Suspects.

HABEAS CORPUS HEARING AT JEFFERSON CITY TO-MORROW.

Circuit Attorney Folk yesterday filed information charging Edmund Bersch, Chas. J. Denny, Jerre J. Hannigan and T. E. Albright with perjury in connection with the Suburban Railway deal. To-day he expects to file informations against ten others on the same charge. The informations take the places of the bench warrants issued at the instance of the Grand Jury one week ago last Monday. Bench warrants also have been issued charging Bersch, Albright, Denny and Hannigan with bribery in connection with the lighting deal. Informations have not been filed in these cases as yet. Albright, Denny, Bersch and Hannigan now will have to come into court to give new bonds for $5,000 on the charge made in the informations filed yesterday. All but Denny have given their bond to answer the charge of bribery in connection with the Suburban deal, which was made in informations filed last Saturday. The Grand Jury will convene this morning at 11 o'clock. Circuit Attorney Folk says he expects it to be only a short session. If H. A. Craney, Jr., who is said to have introduced the mysterious "Mr. Brown" to President McMath, who was President of the Board of Public Improvements when the lighting bill was before that body for consideration, appears, he will be interrogated by the grand jurors. BURKE AND GERAGHTY SUMMONED TO APPEAR. John J. Burke, member of the House of Delegates, and Charles L. Geraghty, have been requested to appear at Circuit Attorney Folk's office. Geraghty failed to answer the summons yesterday. Burke was on hand about 1 o'clock, but, after waiting two hours for Folk to return from downtown, where he was attending to business connected with the bribery investigation, departed, saying he would return to-day. It is believed that Burke and Geraghty will be questioned about the whereabouts of Charles F. Kelly, as Circuit Attorney Folk has been informed that they have knowledge on the subject. They possibly may be witnesses before the Grand Jury if they are present this morning. Chris Schawacker, a Republican politician, who was defeated for Central Committee in his ward Tuesday, was closeted with Circuit Attorney Folk nearly an hour yesterday. Neither the Circuit Attorney nor Schawacker would say what was the occasion of the visit. As Schawacker was bondsmen for Julius Lehmann before his conviction on the charge of perjury, the report that the Circuit Attorney asked for a conference with him with a view to obtaining information as to Lehmann's present whereabouts gained credence at the Four Courts. Soon after the bench warrants were issued against Lehmann and eighteen others, nearly two weeks ago, Schawacker said to a reporter for The Republic that Lehmann was in the city and was waiting until he could arrange for a bondsmen before surrendering. CRANEY IS WANTED. AS A WITNESS. Deputy Sheriffs have searched several days for H. A. Craney, Jr., who is wanted as a witness by the Grand Jury. It is believed that he can give important information in connection with the lighting deal, the investigation of which has resulted in bench warrants being issued against eighteen persons. Robert McMath has said that Craney represented the Welsbach Company in the lighting deal. On one occasion Mr. McMath says Craney introduced to him a man whom he said was "Mr. Brown" of the Welsbach Company. Mr. McMath declares that after that Craney was the sole representative of the company before the Board of Public Improvements. Craney is local manager of the Barber Asphalt Company, and it is said, is in the East on a vacation. The deputy sheriffs who have been searching for him have called several times at the Barber Asphalt Company's offices, but have been unable to find him there. It is said that "Mr. Brown," in the few brief minutes he conversed with Mr. McMath, promised that in the event his company secured the lighting contract that each lamp would cost the city only $8.

CIRCUIT ATTORNEY FOLK AT JEFFERSON CITY TO-MORROW.

Circuit Attorney Folk will go to Jefferson City to-night and to-morrow will represent Jailer Huebner and Sheriff Dickman, against whom the writs of habeas corpus have been asked in the Supreme Court for their release from the Four Courts. The writs were issued for the prisoners claim that the amount of bond, $5,000 in each of three cases, is excessive, and have used for writs of habeas corpus on this ground. William M. Tamblin, who was brought back to St. Louis from Cleveland, O., to answer two charges of bribery, said yesterday that he was prepared to give a trust company bond for $50,000, but is unwilling to ask his friends to put up their real estate as surety for his appearance in court. Tamblin complains that he is not being fairly treated after returning to St. Louis without reputation papers having been issued for him. He says his employers in Cleveland would have given bond for him had they been permitted to do so. Tamblin is worrying about the welfare of his business and family. Yesterday passed without a report of Kelly's whereabouts from the Four Courts. Nearly every day since the bench warrants were issued for him the authorities have received "tips" that Kelly was at this or that place. Several such reports have been investigated without result. CRANEY IS WANTED. THE FUGITIVE MEN. Circulars bearing accurate descriptions of Julius Lehmann, Charles F. Kelly, Emil Hartmann, John A. (Kid) Sheridan, Louis Decker and Adolph Madera will be sent out to-day by Chief of Police Kelly to the police and sheriffs of cities and towns throughout the country. Each circular bears a picture of the fugitive and through them it is believed some of the men will soon be apprehended. The occupation, age, height, color of hair and eyes and habits of the six fugitives are given in the circulars. Of Kelly the circular says: member of the House of Delegates, about 40 years old, 5 feet 8 inches tall, weight about 150 pounds, medium stout build, brown reddish hair, blue eyes, small freckles on face and hands, large mouth, smooth face, fine set of large teeth shows when laughing or talking, smokes and drinks, occasional drinker. Generally wears a black business suit, a neat dresser.

ENGLAND BACKS UP AMERICA'S DEMAND.

Calls for Action by Signatories of Berlin Treaty to Protect Roumanian Jews.

GRIEVANCE DEEMED URGENT.

Germany Regards Protest From United States Quite Within Rights—Powers to Exchange Views at Once.

Berlin, Sept. 18.—The German Foreign Office has received a note from the British Government inviting some action on the part of the signatories of the treaty of Berlin of 1878 regarding Roumania's treatment of Jews. The British note is shorter than that of the United States on the same subject, but it has the same tone. It is assumed here that Great Britain knew of the United States' step beforehand and acted in support thereof. The United States' action is regarded as being quite within their rights, in seeking the assistance of the signatories in preventing an influx of indigent immigrants, which is recognized as a substantial grievance. These two notes will result in an interchange of views between the Powers as to what action is feasible. In the meantime, it is expected that Roumania will take cognizance of America's protest and defend her case upon her own initiative before the signatories. This statement represents the views of the German Government, but the press, knowing nothing of the British note, seems to consider the United States action as simply chivalrous and as not likely to result in practical measures. The Voelcher Zeitung says that, while thinking Germany will do nothing, it still believes the United States' note cannot fail to have a strong moral effect, adding: "That, perhaps, is its purpose. America does not need the protection of Europe against pauper immigration, as it already has legislation sufficient to keep out undesirable immigrants. What the United States aimed at, therefore, was an expression of their feeling of humanity, which, notwithstanding its novelty, is an agreeable thing to see."

FORTY-FOUR PERSONS INJURED.

Passenger Train, Running Fifty Miles an Hour, Wrecked.

Chillicothe, O., Sept. 18.—No. 2, the "Royal Blue Flyer," on the Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern, was wrecked at Leesburg, near here at 8 o'clock to-night, the train having run into an open switch while running at the rate of fifty miles an hour. To add to the disaster the engine exploded, and the engineer and fireman were killed. Every coach on the train left the track and forty-four persons were injured. Their names cannot be obtained here, as all is in confusion. The train consisted of eight coaches and was packed with people, who were returning from the Cincinnati fall festivities. Will Be Speaker Next Session. Dubuque, Ia., Sept. 18.—It is announced to-night that Speaker Henderson does not intend to resign the speakership at the coming session of Congress.

PRESIDENT FRANCIS WILL HAVE BUSY DAY.

World's Fair Executive Arrives. With Plans for the Eastern Bureau.

WILL TELL NAME OF ITS CHIEF.

Location of Agency Headquarters to Be in Thirty-Fourth Street in New York—Wabash Injunction Hearing To-Day.

President D. R. Francis of the Exposition Company will arrive at an early hour to-day. Before the Exposition Executive Committee, which meets at noon, he is expected to announce the name of a well-known newspaper man in New York, whom he has selected to take charge of the Eastern Exploitation Bureau for the World's Fair. It is understood that the location of the bureau will be in Thirty-fourth street in the Metropolis. All the plans which President Francis has laid for the operation of this important agency of the World's Fair during his personal exploitation trip will be made known to the committee for its approval. President Francis is expected to urge that the exploitation of the Fair in the East commence at once. These views are the result of his observations throughout the New England States and New York, and conferences with Commissioners of New York and other Atlantic States. A satisfactory arrangement has been made with the New York State Commission, for a co-operative system of exploitation in the city and State. Details of these plans will be set forth in his report to the Executive Committee. Aside from exploitation, he will report on many other business matters of interest to the Exposition Company, among them being unusually successful arrangements for exhibitions by several of the largest corporations in the world. One of the principal reasons for his trip was a desire on the part of the Exposition management to get into line the larger manufacturers of the East, who have held aloof from participation in the Exposition, through the mistaken idea that the Fair was on a par with Buffalo and Omaha. President Francis' trip is understood to have removed these impressions, besides opening the eyes of the Exposition management to the fact that immediate exploitation was vital. At 10 o'clock to-day the hearing of the injunction obtained by the Wabash against the city and the Exposition Company will come up for disposition before Judge William Zachritz. It is expected that President Francis will be present, besides Mayor Wells and other officials.

PLOT TO DEFEAT HENDERSON?

Speaker's Opponents in House Said to Have Caused Withdrawal.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL. New York, Sept. 18.—In his Washington dispatches the New York Sun says this morning: "A personal friend of Speaker Henderson in discussing his retirement to-day said: 'The truth of the matter might as well be told now as later on. There was a plot set afoot to bring about the defeat of Mr. Henderson for the speakership, and it was discovered at this time. There was nothing for the Speaker to do but to retire. Those in the plot were Chairman Babcock, Congressman Hull of Iowa, Tawney of Minnesota and several others. They did not want Henderson the last time, and since the Fifty-sixth Congress they have been conspiring to bring about his defeat for the speakership and had gathered enough strength to bring this about, when he quit.'"

SPEAKER'S DECISION SUDDEN.

His Secretary Says, Week Ago He Was Planning to Continue.

REPUBLICAN SPECIAL. Washington, Sept. 18.—Julian W. Richards of Iowa, secretary to Speaker Henderson, arrived in Washington to-day and only added to the mystery that surrounds the speaker's withdrawal. When asked for an explanation of the Speaker's action, he said he had nothing to say, and that he knew absolutely nothing of the Speaker's motives. When Mr. Richards last saw the Speaker he had no intention whatever of withdrawing from the contest, and even a week ago was making preparations to continue the fight. If there is any hidden motive in the Speaker's action it has come to the front since last Sunday. Other Iowa friends—both personal and political—of General Henderson, who have been in Washington to-day, have suggested that the Speaker's withdrawal might have been suggested because he was not asked to the Oyster Bay conference on the tariff last Tuesday, which was the day that he announced his intention of withdrawing.
